

March 30, 2021

Announcement -- The Adventist Human-Subject Researchers Association 2021 annual meeting will be hosted by Andrews University May 19-21. This conference is peer reviewed, and all oral presentations count for full FAR credit.

Theme -- Health, Gospel, Community: Get Involved. This theme is broad and is intended to cover a wide variety of human-subject research in health behaviors, social sciences, communication, community-based research, educational research, and missiology.

EXTENDED Deadline for submissions – April 9, 2021 – All submissions should be made to Andrews University Digital Commons at: <https://digitalcommons.andrews.edu/ahsra/2021/>

Submission Instructions and fees can be found at – <http://www.ahsra.net/abstract-submission.html>

Criteria for Review can be found at – <http://www.ahsra.net/submission-rating-criteria.html>

Global Membership and Participation – AHSRA has over 100 members from every Division of the World Church.

Keynote Speakers – Dr. Gary Fraser from Loma Linda University will present on the Adventist Health Study; Dr. Thadeu Silva, the Director of Archives from the South American Division, will present on his research in that Division and Dr. Daniel Ganu, Dean of the School of Postgraduate Studies, Adventist University of Africa, will present results from his African Adventist Health Study.

Scholarships for conference presenters at 50% off are available. A limited number of 50% off scholarships are also available for other attendees. If you wish to apply for a scholarship, please contact AHSRA at ahsra@andrews.edu prior to registration to receive a discount code.

Why should you present/attend? -- This conference has a global representation of the best of Adventist Human-Subject Research, you will have a chance to interact with colleagues from every Division of the Church, you will receive feedback on your research from global peers!

Visit Meeting Website at: www.ashra.net

Duane C. McBride PhD

President, Adventist Human-Subject Researchers Association

Adventist Human-Subject Researchers Association – Buller 234, 48488 E. Campus Circle Drive, Berrien Springs, MI 49104-0355 - E-mail: AHSRA@andrews.edu